MACHO AGAIN stalked the dueling leaders from early on while four wide, took over when ready in the upper stretch, moved clear when roused and continued under late hand urging to widen. CROWNED GENERAL went up to contest the pace early while outside of ACTION SEEKER, battled heads apart and was not a match for the winner in the drive while clearly second best. B B FRANK, reluctant to load into the gate, drifted in at the break bumping with EXCITABLE BOY, gained a striking position four wide, loomed a solid threat into the final furlong and came up empty. SMIRK, within easy striking distance four or five wide into the upper stretch, lacked a closing punch. ACTION SEEKER swerved out at the start shutting off BONNIE'S PROSPECT, gained a slim lead two or three wide while dueling and tired nearing the lane. TRANSOM, within striking distance along the inside, had no closing account. LOUISVILLE FLYER failed to rally in an even effort. TRAVIS HARDIN was outrun to the lane and passed tired foes. EXCITABLE BOY drifted in at the start, was bumped by B B FRANK, then failed to menace. BONNIE'S PROSPECT broke slowly, was shut off when ACTION SEEKER swerved out and never prominent. SIR PAUL THAU was through after a half. CAPITAL PARK tired early.
