Footnotes

WHISTLING BIRDS prompted the pace from the three path, quickened approaching the half mile pole, grabbing away the advantage as the half was being completed, edged away from the competition during the run around the bend, was put to a drive heading into the top of the lane, came in after a single right shot at the three-sixteenths marker, not bothering yet inducing the second place finisher nevertheless to alter course to the outside, dug in well enough in the final stages to hold sway. PIER FORTY made contact with JUDGE STANTON in the shadow of the starting gate, was put to an abbreviated ride afterwards to get going, took up the chase from path two, spun into the stretch under a hard drive, altered course to be outside the top one a few strides later, gained late, but fell well short. JUDGE STANTON gently pinched after being bumped from both sides at the break, was in path four in pursuit of the front runners, stepped into the stretch and proved no match. BEBE BANKER remained along the inside route after the field had been sent off and running, saw the pilot grab hold after things became a little tight along its route beginning from the five-sixteenths pole, got steadied just shy of the quarter pole, arrived into the stretch and lacked the needed response. DARING DISGUISE bobbed inward springing from the gate, resulting in some contact with its next door neighbor, went onward to narrowly secure the top, was at on near the two path, vying against WHISTLING BIRDS, kept at it until midpoint on the bend before giving way. All riders carried an additional two pounds as mandated by a weather-related safety initiative.
