Footnotes

ALWAYSMINING gained an easy, early lead, set the pace well off the rail, responded to hand urging in upper stretch, pulled away and was under the whip once in mid stretch. JOEVIA stalked the pace, advanced two wide on the turn then futilely, but gamely chased the winner through the stretch. TYBALT, well placed along the rail down the backstretch, remained along the rail on the far turn and through stretch but weakened late. DIXIE DRAWL lacked speed, hugged the inner rail around the far turn and failed to menace. STILL DREAMING, four deep entering the first turn, had a mild, two wide move on the far turn and weakened through the stretch. RED GUM, three wide the first turn, was under urging three deep leaving the far turn and tired. MAKES MO CENTS, outrun, dropped back.
