Footnotes

CHIPOLATA (FR) away last, went onto the inside route after leaving the finish line for the initial time, was well held bringing up the back of the pack, slipped into the two path at the three-eighths pole, continued to bide time during the run around the second bend, fanned out into path five from the head of the stretch to the three-sixteenths marker, becoming the widest of all, straightened away and was given her cue, responded eagerly, beginning the final furlong trailing only by the barest of margins, outfought a trio of opponents to her inside to take charge, then dug in to preserve the decision. WAR CABINET along the outside throughout, swung three wide onto the backstretch, went about it without benefit of being able to draft behind others, stepped onto the far turn still positioned in path three, was given her cue for the drive home, commenced it by tipping slipping wider, was between foes with a fighting chance to secure the front end upon completion of the run through the furlong grounds, failed to keep up with the winner once that rival cemented herself to the lead, but displayed enough willingness nevertheless to garner the place. VIOLET BLUE made it over to the rail shortly after the first fraction had been finalized, remained along it all the way to the quarter pole, slithered two wide into the stretch, picked up interest when asked in the general area of the three-sixteenths marker, split rivals attempting to claim the top, wasn't up to the task, then lost out to WAR CABINET for place honors. CHIARA LUNA the early leader along the rail, was content to let a rank TANYA'S GEM grab away the advantage, abandoned the rail coming off the opening bend, patiently stalked the new leader from path two, crept up departing the backstretch, was still in reserve striking the front right around the quarter pole, got asked a sixteenth later, clung desperately under siege at the eighth pole, got reeled in then weakened late. TANYA'S GEM along the rail, rated unkindly from the shadow of the gate until crossing the wire for the first turn, tipped to the outside and went on to cut back over to the rail by the midway point of the clubhouse bend, having claimed the top, was keen for a while longer before settling down to a more professional way of going early on the backstretch, got pounced upon by CHIARA LUNA springing from the three-eighths pole, put up a fight until the top of the lane before releasing the lead for good and backed away.
