

Analysis By: Mike Beer

4 ARISTOCRATIC hasn't been seen in NY since ripping off a fast pace and lasting for 3rd behind recent stakes winner Bon Raison at the end of March and he has since been facing better at Monmouth while only managing one start over fast dirt; gets significant class relief for his return and he looks loose on the lead in this spot. 3 REASON TO SOAR's NY form hasn't been his best but he was in good form last summer before going to the sidelines, and he has been facing some much tougher competition since returning from the layoff this year; this is a suspiciously big class drop but he is clearly going to be tough if he shows up with anything approaching his best race. 2 REGALIAN was claimed three starts back for $10k and he quickly got back to top form while matching his career-best Beyer on the cut back last time; horse he defeated in that win last month returned to win his next start and confirmed the figure by matching the 80 Beyer he earned in that spot.