Footnotes

SOUTHERN BRIDGE established control before making it off the homestretch, was rated sailing along from near the inside route, shadowed by NOBLE SPIRIT to the outside, saw the runner up arrive on the scene as three-quarters was being completed, was kept in reserve from the five-sixteenths pole to the three-sixteenths marker even as the closest pursuers were being encouraged by varying degrees, responded when finally asked himself, dug in with good determination to stay in the clear. MALTHAEL strung out three to four wide on the clubhouse bend, was slightly closer to the rail in pursuit of the winner after entering the backstretch, ranged up to SOUTHERN BRIDGE leaving the half mile pole to issue a challenge as the third fraction was being finalized, wasn't up to the task at hand and got flicked off, swung into the lane having been under a drive a sixteenth up the road, was a bit erratic late proving no match. SANDY LANE KITTEN kept watch on the pacesetter from the inside route, got roused shortly after six furlongs had completed, angled three wide into the lane and went to secure the show. DOSWELL bumped solidly with MATATAABEQ after stumbling at the break, raced three wide on both turns, got set down at the three-eighths pole, swung five wide into the stretch, had no rally. MOTATAABEQ got pulled off DOSWELL after making hard contact with that opponent right after the start, was sighted climbing on the slick surface nearing the conclusion of the backstretch, settled into stride to take up the chase at the rear of the pack in path two, kept pace switched over to a hand ride leaving the half mile pole, wandered approximately six wide into the lane, had no energy left by midstretch, was protected the rest of the trip to the finish line. NOBLE SPIRIT stalked the winner towards path two for six furlongs, was put to a drive in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, was on empty by midlane, completed the event set to a protective hold.
