Footnotes

MR. VINCENT strung out three then two wide on the clubhouse bend, sat within striking distance being rated along once onto the backstretch, resumed its pursuit of the front runners in path two after stepping onto turn two, got roused before three-quarters had been reeled off, angled one path father off the rail coming into the stretch, forged to the front during the ensuing furlong, edged away to lead by as many as two lengths, saw the runner up come charging at him from the outside, held on well enough long enough to preserve the decision. CAUSFORCELEBRATION bobbed slightly after losing its footing springing from the starting gate, then got pinched shortly afterwards, recovered and got set up in the two path, was unhurried for six furlongs, sprang into action by fanning into path six from upper to midlane, becoming the widest of all, came home with strong belated energy, missed. BIG WONDER grabbed control shortly after the field had been sent on its way, cut over to the inside, showed the way, rating kindly, unlike its main pursuer, that being the rank PAYNTER'S PRIZE to his outside, continued to set the splits accompanied by the aforementioned foe, settled in upper stretch and was switched over to stronger handling, got collared by the top one deep into the furlong grounds, ventured onward and weakened into the show slot. THE HAPPY GIANT kept watch on the pace stationed in the two path in midpack, got sent four wide for the drive home, made no headway yet earned the final significant slice of the pot. SIDD FINCH loosely pocketed, came up empty. MILLIES PARTY BOY rode the rail until the conclusion of the backstretch, was ridden into the two path during the opening stages of the run around the far turn, swung five wide for the drive home, made no impact. PAYNTER'S PRIZE two wide, stalked the leader unkind until about midpoint on the backstretch, continued to apply some pressure on that opponent until the end of the second bend, backed away steadily down the stretch. STORM ALFEET hung out three wide for six furlongs, was towards the rail entering the stretch on empty, was then allowed to fade away. BLOOD RED SKY folded after undergoing a ground-saving journey.
