

CLOSER LOOK: Multiple graded stakes winner on dirt has shown that he can step on the turf and exits a salty edition of the Kentucky Turf Cup (runner-up Arklow returned to win the Grade 1 Joe Hirsch at Belmont with a 104 Beyer); outrun early, he crept up along the inside before easing out to split horses for the stretch run; in a bit tight late, but think he was only one-paced at that point; will need some pace and race luck from the back; prefer "underneath"