

Analysis By: Mike Beer

7 CHESTERTOWN debuted in a six-furlong sprint and appeared to get what he needed out of that race after breaking slowly and working hard to not get outrun early, before finishing gamely at the end to be a gaining 3rd; $2 million purchase rates to appreciate the added ground he picks up in this spot. 2

HELLBENDER debuted sprinting on dirt and didn't run poorly at all while showing good early speed and then taking on a couple of challenges, before eventually weakening to 3rd; has been legged up in a pair of solid efforts routing on turf since. 3 TRUE GRACE did his best while battling all the way as an MTO two starts back, before settling for second-best, and he made the early lead last time but was no real match at the end in a faster race; Lasix on for the first time.