

Analysis By:Brad Free

Runner-up all three routes, twice as low-odds favorite, TIZAMAGICAN gets the call once more. He has two-turn experience, while his main rivals are stretching out from sprints. 5 TIZAMAGICIAN finished behind two good colts in his in October and November maiden races: Taishan and Honor A.P. are expected to be among the favorites Saturday in the G3 Sham. 4 SNAP CHAP stretches out from a promising fourth-place debut. The $1.2 million yearling lagged off the pace, uncorked a big middle move on the turn, went evenly late and galloped out super. Excellent debut, two turns is what he wants. Same with 6 DIVINE ARMOR. The latter dropped out early in his sprint debut, and finished with run. Bred to run long, gets that chance. MUCH MORE HELP finished second last out in a maiden race on turf.