Like the two other turf miles in the Rainbow sequence, the contentious nature of this MSW finale that mostly drew 3yos (9 of the 13) could force many serious players to spread liberally. Seems like 4 RENATA is a good place to start, given how swiftly she closed in her debut 3 Sundays ago; repeat of that flashy effort makes her an obvious consideration. 8 BRIGHT STREET surely learned some valuable lessons when beaten just 5 lengths in the same 3/29 race as the top pick; stats back up the belief that Motion does quite well with 2nd-timers. 2 LET THEM EAT CAKE contended a long way in her first route; prominent here from the first steps. Among the handful of sleepers many players will feel compelled to use is FOLLOW THE FLAG, who gets first Lasix and blinks when rail-drawn.
