DECORATED INVADER away in good order, remained stationed along the inside route, kept watch on the second place finisher within striking distance, tipped out to draft behind that foe during the last stages of the run leading up to the half mile pole, was maneuvered back closer to the inside after PROVEN STRATEGIES went into the two path at the top of the turn, inched up along the freshly-created open rail corridor, was given his cue launching a bold bid at the five-sixteenths marker, clawed its way forward, not only gaining real estate but likewise preserving his hole, spun into the lane alongside the nemesis, wasn't intimidated as the twosome blazed their way through the furlong grounds, even with the runner up shifting leftward trying to tighten things up a bit, emerged at the eighth pole clearly in charge then drew off smartly. PROVEN STRATEGIES hand urged springing from the gate, established the top in short order, cleared the others enough and was guided onto the inside route, showed the way, feeling some pressure from VANZZY to the outside, came out into the two path approaching the half mile pole, leaving the rail unguarded, continued to lead the way, pulling on the left however, came under siege from the winner in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, got set down a few strides down the road, tried, however belatedly, to close down the rail, yielded nevertheless, stayed on well for the place. MR. KRINGLE got gathered after coming out with his initial step, darted over to the rail nearing the conclusion of the backstretch, rode it to the end of the bend, angled three wide into the stretch, proved no match. VANZZY prompted the pace from path three for three-quarters and gave way. FAMISHED strung out mostly three wide on the chute, was three to four wide on the fuller turn, got sent out into path five during the early stages of the stretch run, failed to fire and backed away. VENEZUELAN HUG underwent a two wide pursuit for nearly six furlongs, between rivals for a good portion of the journey on the backstretch, fanned out into path six for racing clearance from upper to midstretch, lacked a response.
