

CLOSER LOOK: Expensive NY-bred has shown some signs along the way while clearly indicating that distance is going to be to his advantage; ran a good race when second over this trip back in February at Fair Grounds, then got lost a bit in the Louisiana Derby and never made an impact; caught a wet track when returned to NY last time and he completely lost his focus while chasing front-running Our Last Buck, before finally ducking out badly in the stretch to lose any chance; blinkers go on and he is far from impossible in here.
