6 OHIO CLASS is working well toward his first career start for trainer Ben Perkins Jr., who has scored with all four of his debuting runners at this meet; dam won her own debut as a 2-year-old. 4

INSTINCTIVE RHYTHM is clearly a logical contender off that debut run, when 2nd at Saratoga; tactical early zip should mean he's once again well spotted from the start, and there are a couple of confirmed speeds in this field that could produce a duel in front of him. 5 BACKSHOT just missed in his lone try at six furlongs, posting a strong Beyer in a sprint that proved to be a key race; training steadily toward this return from the short break.
