

Analysis By: Marcus Hersh

10 KING'S OVATION the first foal to race from stakes-winning dirt sprinter Karen's Silk, and looked good enough at a 2yo breeze-up auction to fetch $200K. Trainer had the precocious first-crop sire in his care and definitely is capable with the right first-timer, of which, guessing from the work pattern, this could be one. 1 HAPPYMAC dueled on a fast pace, gave way, held decently in a wet-track SAR MSW won by G1

Breeders' Futurity entrant Founder. Worked four times since and is set to improve. 11

UNITEDANDRESOLUTE seems to handle both turf and dirt but has nothing more than solidly beaten seconds and thirds after three good races to start career. Lands in a race seemingly loaded with talented first-time starters. Also considered PUBLIC INFORMATION, DARK TIMBER, ONCOMING TRAIN, GRAND DESIGN, and HARD ASSET.