RACE APPRAISAL

ANALYSIS: The HF 15 goes to horses that have all of the elements of an in-the-money finish. This Tea fits the bill as she has been in the win photo in all three of her routes, is eligible to improve while making her second start in blinkers, and she owns a share of the paper race win. She has a recency edge on co-winner Lookintogeteven and lands an HF 15. She's the key Exacta horse, but she's found a way to lose three photo finishes, so she's not necessarily a Pick 4 single. Cal-bred Awesome Ella was 3rd behind here going 10 furlongs Oct 25 and is proven on the turf. Ya Beauty has been freshened since Aug 30 and shows just two recent works, but Prat is up and she wasn't beaten too badly in her first two starts in the U.S.

She deserves a chance. Belize was claimed for $50,000 14+ months ago by Neil Drysdale. She wasn't beaten too badly when and has trained steadily for this. She has odds-beating potential, buy Drysdale was winless with his two other claims this decade. Stretcher-outers Shes'a Perfectlady and England's Rose are lightly-raced stretcher-outers that are bred to get this trip and both deserve a chance to win.
CLOSERS: Fastest in the stretch in recent races at or near this distance have been: Lookintogeteven :23.4 - Lookin So Lucky :23.5 - Awesome Ella :23.9

HORSE COMMENTS

Lookin So Lucky ran decently when jumped into the Maiden ranks and shortened up Oct 24 and may be tighter on the stretch-out.

Shes'a Perfectlady rallied to be a close 4th in her first two sprint starts and two of her three winning siblings are multiple route winners. That suggests this longer trip should suit her and she brings a steady string of stamina-building works into this. Count her 'in'.

England's Rose is a late-blooming 4-yr old that ran OK in her Aug 23 debut, a dirt sprint. She's bred in spades to route on the grass, worked fast back on Oct 10 and Shirreffs does well with second-timers. Count her 'in', too.

Rocking Redhead was never a threat as a comebacking second-timer for Baltas in a Sept 27 turf sprint, but may improve with recency and more furlongs.

Let's Go Now chased the pace and stopped as a comebacking second-timer July 26 and has been off since then. She's back with Harty (from Mark Casse) and ran well for Harty in her February debut in Florida. She's worked slowly for this, but watch the betting just the same.

Lookintogeteven has been off since a decent main-track try at Los Al July 3. She shares the paper race win based on her mid-pack finish on the grass May 24, but she's finished in-the-money just once in seven turf routes. Cassidy tends to race his stock into shape, too.

Belize was claimed from John Sadler for $50,000 when she was offered up for sale for her second career start in August 2019 (she had cost Hronis Racing $160,000 as a 2-yr old). She's been off since then, but has trained steadily for Drysdale, who almost never claims a horse (she was his third claim since 2010 (he never won with the first two that he claimed)). This one's dam was a multiple turf winner and she's produced three multiple turf winners.

This Tea has routed three times to date and has been in the win photo in all of them, most recently when fitted in blinkers and stretched out to 10 furlongs Oct 25. She lost a headbob that day and the second start in blinkers is a point of potential improvement. She's strictly the one to beat.

Ya Beauty (GB) finished in the back half of the field in two starts in August and has been freshened for nearly 11 weeks. She wasn't beaten too badly in either start, though, and she is also making her second start in blinkers. On the other hand, she shows just two official works for this. She's a contender just the same.

Awesome Ella is a Cal-bred that was 3rd behind This Tea in that 10-panel turf Oct 25. That makes her a class fit, but another secondary award may be her limit. There's a fat Cal-bred bonus available if she wins, though.
