

Analysis By:Ron Gierkink

3 KING ANGELO nearly wired the field going seven-eighths at first asking vs. NY-breds on the dirt at Aqueduct Dec. 20. The son of excellent grass sire Lemon Drop Kid is out of a versatile mare who produced four turf winners from as many starters. 9 ROCHAMBEAU placed in five of nine outings, including a narrow loss as the favorite when she returned from another layoff here Dec. 2. 1 GEAR JOCKEY is another professional maiden who's mandatory for the bottom of vertical wagers. She was third behind two next-out winners two back at Keeneland. The consistent VOODOO ZIP is coming off the bench for his first attempt for Clement, and might need one before getting back into the swing of things.