

Analysis By:Mike Beer

5 BIG BROWN SHOES debuted over a wet track at the end of last year and ran well while showing some speed before settling for second; faces some interesting firsters in this spot but prefer his experience and expect him to be tough if improving at all from that first one. 7 A LONGLONGTIMEAGO has speed on both sides of his pedigree, though his dam improved once stretched out in her career; trainer excels with first time starters overall, and is 9 for his last 23 debuting in dirt sprints (39%, $4.09 ROI). 3 FORGOTTEN MISSION is by a reliable sire and is a full-brother to the speedy sprinter Forgotten Hero, who was a debut winner for this trainer and has since won four more times, including a NY-bred stakes win in her second career start.