6 WELL TOLD is the first starter out of the dam, who had only three starts in Europe, and the sire wins at an average 12% with his debut runners but his work tab suggests this firster is ready for trainer Eoin Harty; barn not known for winning with firsters but capable, of course, and the breezes suggest this gelding has some speed. 5 DREAMING OF GERRY is obviously a threat after running 2nd in a similar spot last time out, which also marked his first start with Lasix; figures to make his presence felt in the lane. 2 FLYING WITH ANGELS is out of a dam who was a stakes-placed sprinter and she produced a stakes winning sprinter in Long Weekend, who won a pair of stakes as well as her own career debut; logical enough, though he figures to take a fair amount of money.
