Footnotes

ZAAJEL got antsy waiting for the gates to open, then came out a step slowly when they did, gradually gained outside of rivals down the backstretch to achieve a three wide stalking position at the half mile pole, inched closer around the turn to bid for the lead at the five sixteenths pole, forged an advantage turning for home as DIAL TO WIN ranged up along side, repulsed that foe and drew clear approaching the final sixteenth, and safely held from LADY TRAVELER late. LADY TRAVELER lied off of the pace three wide, got floated to the four to five path at the five sixteenths pole as an inner foe shifted outwards, came under all out pressure to keep pace passing the quarter pole, finally responded to that urging in midstretch, and stayed on outside of tiring rivals to claim place in the late stages. WHOLEBODEMEISTER broke outwards and pinched a foe at the start, lied forwardly placed along the inside, came under a drive to hold position at the three furlong marker, slipped inside of the pace setter in upper stretch, and sustained an inside grinding rally while in tight quarters along the rail, but was outfinished for place. DIAL TO WIN tracked from midpack two wide, shifted to the four path at the five sixteenths pole to produce a bid for the lead outside of ZAAJEL turning for home, but was turned away by that rival approaching the final sixteenth, and tired. COACH JER'S JOY broke inwards but was clear of her inner rival, stalked the pace setter two wide and from between horses, got outmoved by the eventual winner at the five sixteenths pole, chased from behind that foe while between horses through the lane, and steadied mildly approaching the wire when her inner counterpart slipped through. COMPETITIVE SPEED was bumped between horses at the start, lied off of the pace along the inside, took the turn in the two to three path, then failed to mount a rally through the lane. THREE TIPSY CHIX was jostled between horses and pinched back at the start, trailed the field along the inside, and was outrun. QUEEN ARELLA broke inwards and bumped a foe at the start, set the pace along the inside, but was headed at the quarter pole, then got swallowed up between horses in upper stretch while being eased on her left lead.
