

CLOSER LOOK: Trainer Abreu has an excellent record with first-time starters so a winning debut from this son of Maclean's Music was no surprise, and the 74 Beyer he earned in victory is solid; showed fine tactical speed en route to that win, and he was also professional in that race while holding his position in behind horses; is not the only flashy recent maiden winner in this field but there was plenty to like about his debut and he is confidently stepped up to try stakes company right away.
