

CLOSER LOOK: He's an undefeated stakes winner, with the latter triumph coming in the Maryland Juvenile Futurity in his last start Dec. 5; shortens up some off that seven-eighths start and he is a two-time winner at six furlongs; both of those victories came against open company, while he defeated statebreds in the stakes; like that he draws outside of most of his pace rivals, and that he will be first Lasix; win candidate.