1 BEYOND BRILLIANT should win this maiden route at odds-on. In his first dirt route last out, he gave Affirmed Stakes contender Mr. Impossible all he could handle while finishing nine+ lengths clear of third and earning a speed figure equal to MSW par. 'BRILLIANT has speed in a field without much of that, and should be long gone. He is trained by John Shirreffs, who also entered 2 MAGNIFICENT, eighth in his debut on turf. MAGNIFICENT is likely to improve second out with a surface switch. Progeny of Frosted typically run better on dirt than turf. 5 WHISTLEBLOWER was only prepping in his next-to-last debut in the same turf race. 'BLOWER also is likely to improve. But the truth is, BEYOND BRILLIANT will be tough at low odds.
