

CLOSER LOOK: $1.5 million son of 2-time HOY Curlin has made an awfully nice impression winning his first 2 starts; yes, the margins weren't any great shakes but the Beyers were sure nice; worked strongly since and he's shown he can handle dry or wet dirt, can be on the pace or just off, which could be key depending on what Snow House does to his outside; bullet work June 27 says he continues to thrive. - Michael Hammersly