

Analysis By:Mike Beer

8 OUR TROUBADOUR has not been that competitive in his five starts so far this year, though he did run pretty well when trying to rally into a slow pace over this distance three starts back; stretches back out a bit after getting bothered by a loose horse behind a front-running winner last time. 6 TURN OF EVENTS was up to this level off the claim last time and ran a winning race while battling on a competitive pace all the way, only to fall to a rail-skimming closer late; lands in another race with plenty of other speed for him to contend with as he cuts back a furlong. 7 DETERMINED FURY won his turf debut in May while keeping close to a solid pace and then easily overpowering the leaders in the stretch; earned a new top figure when rallying for second behind that front-running winner last time and finishing ahead of the top one.