

CLOSER LOOK: Stakes winner is a versatile sort, as one who has had success both on the main track and on the grass; should be razor sharp for the six furlongs off the pacesetting win over five-eighths of a mile in his most recent start; might have a chance to slip away, if things go his way at the break; as for company lines, two back he was a close third to Golden Pal, who went on to win the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint this past November; win candidate.