

Analysis By: Mike Beer

Best Bet: Eyes On Target (5th race)

5 DYNAMIC ONE was underrated as a 3yo while doing some good things, including a strong win in the Curlin; looked like he needed his first start back this year, after which he got unlucky in the Ben Ali; settled and overpowered a solid field last time with a new top figure last time; see no reason why this distance would be beyond his scope.

4 FIRST CAPTAIN was also promising as a 3yo and he did not run as poorly as it may appear on paper when losing to the top one in the Curlin; liked his return from the layoff, before he bombed in the Carter; proved that he can get a distance when gunning down favored Vindictive with a strong finish last time. 1 UNTREATED is consistent and looks like the speed once again while landing in a short field; was no match for FIRST CAPTAIN in the Pimlico Special most recently while doing his best, and he had no apparent excuse when failing to hold off FOREWARNED two back.