Footnotes

WHO SAYS SO broke a step slow then steadied off heels near the five eighths, angled out while put to asking leaving the far turn, quickly gained and made a bold four deep bid to take over into the lane, vied outside rivals near mid stretch, briefly went clear, kept on under solid handling and denied an outer challenge from CREED'S VISION. CREED'S VISION , sluggish while under a hustling ride early on, angled out near the three eighths and commenced a run, advanced nicely four wide into the stretch, shifted out wider past the three sixteenths, ranged up loom outside the winner leaving the sixteenth pole, continued willingly but was kept at bay. PRESTIGE WORLDWIDE took over between rivals near the half, dropped in and handled outer pressure past the five sixteenths, duelled inside rivals nearing mid stretch and stayed on well to the wire. BOLD DIVERSION stumbled at the break, tracked four wide nearing the turn, bid three wide between foes near the quarter pole, fought on between runners past mid stretch then faded late. GREY BIGGSY , three then two wide prompting the pace, disputed the issue between runners nearing the stretch, failed to kick on nearing mid stretch and weakened. CASEY N PAP , three deep with early pursuit, dropped back on the turn and came up empty through the drive. GENERAL MAXIMUS sped to a brief lead, was overtaken then eased back off rivals nearing the half, was under pressure saving ground mid turn, eased out in the lane and faded. FINAL OFFER , off last after breaking in the air, recovered and showed good speed while used between horses past the five eighths, vied inside a pair of foes nearing the turn, stayed on to chase past mid stretch then weakened in the drive. MOONLIT FROST , between rivals while forward past the five eighths, steadied when close near the turn, faltered and was eased late.
