MEEFMAN broke alertly and shared the early lead along the inside, edged clear before a half mile then drew off and was kept to steady pressure despite pulling away to a commanding lead. SMALL BOY JR. broke alertly to be forwardly placed then was no match for the winner in the final three furlongs. TAPPINDADDY raced just off the early pace then tired and was well clear for third. THE LUNCH MAKER showed little. SALUTE TO BOB was no factor. STONE LOVER, difficult to load, was used up early then was eased in deep stretch and walked off under his own power. A LATE SCRATCH AT THE GATE AND A SLOW GATE LOAD RESULTED IN A 6 MINUTE DELAY OF THE START..
