Footnotes

CRAWDADDY remained along the inside after the break, sat loosely pocketed in the early going, appeared a bit eager coming to the half mile pole, had it temporarily tempered down, displayed some keenness once more approaching the three-eighths pole, drew up into tight quarters to the left of BAVARO, got steadied getting shuffled back during the remainder of the run leading up to the five-sixteenths pole, settled down in time to slip into the two path at the end of the bend, was almost at the three-sixteenths pole before switched over to stronger handling, split rivals in midstretch then dove back over to the inside route, drew even with about a sixteenth to go, cemented himself to the front with a few more jumps and edged away. HELDATGUNPOINT responded to some light hand urging to establish control, carved out the pace from the rail, shifted into the two path when called upon for the commencement of the stretch run, was nailed with approximately a sixteenth remaining, continued onward in a willing manner to garner the place. T LOVES A FIGHT chased the pace from the two path, got angled four wide into the lane, straightened away and rallied for the show. REASON TO SOAR placed three wide in midpack, lacked the needed late response. TERRY O GERI leaned in, hitting the side of the gate, was two wide entering the turn and sent five wide exiting it, made no headway. ARDMORE BAY lost its footing at the start, began the run around the bend three wide, but ended it towards the two path, gave way. YOU LIKE THAT made it over quickly to the inside route after the break, made contact with the fence nearing the half mile pole, continued to save ground on the turn, angled five wide in upper stretch, had no offering. ST. PATRICK FROST lunged at the start, striking the left side of the starting gate, tucked into the two well before arriving at the end of the backstretch, remained in it on the turn and was never in contention. BAVARO prompted the pacesetter from the two path and gave way.
